Another word for closing ceremony

Closing ceremony other words. Whats another word for closing. What is a closing ceremony.

When the flag of the United States (old glory) becomes worn, torn, faded or badly, it is time to replace it by a new flag, and the ancient flag must be "retired" with all dignity and respect. Flag of our nation. The traditional retirement method is to incinerate the flag, but that does not mean that one should simply release the whole flag (intact) in an inception. A flag ceases to be a flag when it is cut into pieces. In addition, it is easier to completely incinerate the flag if cut into smaller pieces. A flag should never be torn as an old bed sheet. It should be cut with scissors or scissors in a metallic way. The flag corners should be extended on a table top and somebody should cut the flag in half, vertically (be careful not to cut the blue star field (see figure)). Then place the two halves Together and cut them in half, horizontally. You will end four pieces of flag, being a blue star field. Note: The reason why we do not cut the blue star field that represents The union of the fifty states and should never let the union be broken. While the Scouts are performing the flag of the flag, other scouts must begin and take care of a size, fire of wood (preferably in a metal drum or incinerator). Once the remnants of flag and fire are ready, you perform the following ceremony. Scouts keep a vigilla on fire until all the dressings of the Flag remains are destroyed. So, fire is extinct and ashes are buried. Error can be completed with a moment of silence while touching are thrown by a bugler. Note: Before: Accepting a flag for retirement, the RECOIENT should obtain information about your story. For example: Where did you fly? How much time? Any memorable events à € à € ¥ Á À® Á® Á® ...
